

2.85 top-margin
0.00 basic-dist 0.00 min-dist

5.00 basic-dist

Peace, Troubled Soul!

Text: Samuel Eaking (1757-1785)
Manchester No.25

Music: Arthur Hanson
Tune: Beulah. L.M.

1. Peace, trou - bled soul, thou need'st not fear;
 2. The Lord, who built the earth and sky,
 3. With - out re - serve give Christ your heart,
 4. Thus shall the soul be tru - ly blest,
 5. His stores (-38.54, -3.83) extent-estimate
 are o - pen all, and free

8.00 basic-dist

Thy great Pro - vid - er still is near;
 In mer - cy stoops to hear thy cry;
 Let Him His right - eous - ness im - part;
 That seeks in God His on - ly rest;
 To such as (-37.83, -3.83) extent-estimate
 tru - ly up - right be;

8.00 basic-dist

162.61 paper-height 71 extra dist

Who fed thee last, will feed thee still:
 His prom - ise all may free - ly claim;
 Then all things else He'll free - ly give;
 May I t(-37.66, -3.17) extent-estimate
 Wa - ter and bread He'll give for food,

8.00 basic-dist

Be calm, and sink in - to His will.
 "Ask and re - ceive in Je - sus' name."
 With Him you all things shall re - ceive.
 In time a(-39.00, -3.67) extent-estimate
 With all things else which He sees good.

1.00 basic-dist

2.85 bottom-margin

15.24 extra dist
10.91 space left